

A walk through the woods

A Board Game to compliment 'We're Going on a Bear Hunt' by Michael Rosen and Helen Oxenbury

You will need (for 4 players):

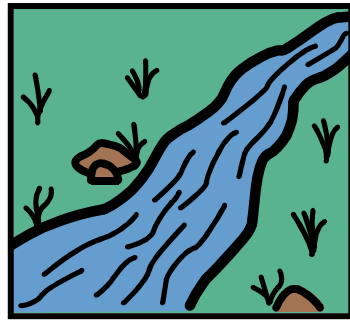

- 1 game board (this is A3 size)
- 4 lotto boards (these are A4 size)
- 4 sets of tick cards
- 4 counters of different colours
- 1 dice

Instructions:

Each child places a counter on the house (start). All say the rhyme 'We're going on a bear hunt, we're going to catch a big one....etc.' to set the scene Children throw the dice and move round the board, taking a tick card to place on their lotto board every time they pass through a zone of the story. When they pass through each zone all the children should repeat the sound words from the story that correspond with the zone (swishy, swashy etc).When they reach the bear they must retrace their steps back to the house. The winner is the first player safely back home.
